STORK VISITS PRISON CELL OF MRS. MAY HAINES.

Girl Baby Brightens Life of Woman Held for Murder of Her Stepdaughter.

SON OF 12

GONE AND

When the lights had been turned out as a girl, her ambition raised her above in the jail at Mount Holly, N. J., last her station. She married Howard night and the prisoners were quietly Haines, the husband of the friend of her sleeping the stork crowded through the bars into the cell of a woman who is in her charge was left a pretty step-held on the charge of taking the life of a sweet-faced little girl who was intrusted to her keeping.

The woman is Mrs. May Finton Haines, of Delanco. She clasped her girl baby in her arms and wept. Before ther is the shadow of the gallows. Her past is a life of hardship, romance and sadness. Reared in poor surroundings.

In her charge was left a pretty step-daughter, Gwendolin.

Then came reports of cruel treatment to the child. Finally the little one died. The body was exhumed, and traces of arsenic poison were found. An examilation showed that the child had been cruelly beaten. Mrs. Haines was arrested, and is now awaiting trial on the charge of murder. Mother and child sadues $12.00; special for to-morrow, Rockmore has been in the habit of drawing a considerable sum from the Link each Saturday to accomodate the tailors in the neighborhood who come to him to get their checks cashed. Saturday alsat his daughter "Guessle." liftcon years old, was sent to the bank, and when she returned she had $90 in polis in a small suchel.

Milliam, the ron, as the father tells the story, had a growing fondness for money and cach Saturday when the roll was exposed he turned greedy eyes upon it. He loved to handle the crisp notes and often wished for the day notes and often wished for the day notes and often wished for the day came when Willie was sorely tempted. He heard "Guessle" receive her orders to get the money and he hung around the saloon.

"Why don't you go out to play, Willie, however, we money and he hung around the saloon." "Why don't you go to to play, Willie however, we may be a summer to be all the common. "Why don't you go out to play, Willie moted, and with her the money. Rockmore left the room for a moment, and the bills lay unguarded, it was Willie's charce. Quickly he vailabled from the saloon, and Rockmore curved and with a photograph of the land back of a Coney Island bronco and four other courtiers held the cords from the saloon, and Rockmore curved and with a photograph of the missing boy.

LONDON MOURNS FOR THE EMPRESS.

LONDON, Aug. 13 -A memorial seg-LONDON, Aug. 13—A memorial service was held to-day in the Chapel Royal, St. James's Palace, simultaneously with the funeral of the Dowager Empress Frederick at Potsdem. Among those pregent were the Duke and Duchess of Argyll, Lord Salisbury, United States Ambassador Choste and other notables.

As the opening sentences of the service were chanted a royal salute was first in St. James's Park, followed by

The Sale of sales. "Equalled by none, and excelled by few," to use a famous saying of Artemus Ward. Stocks larger and assortments more perfect than during the first successful week, owing to the arrival of important shipments that were delayed in transit. Bought by our New York and Chicago stores in such enormous quantities as to enable us to undersell all competitors. If you intend furnishing a new home or refurnishing the old, it will pay you handsomely to buy everything you need now. A little later on, when "house opening" for the Fall and Winter seasons begins, prices are sure to go up with a bound. If you are not ready for the goods, don't bother about that. We'll gladly pack and store for 60 days, free of charge, anything you may buy now. Our special offerings for Wednesday, our regular "Homefitters' Day," should prove interesting and profitable reading. Here they are:
